

THE ROAD TO ROME

I listen to Ted Wilson's video about unity. Is it a coincidence that the Sabbath school quarterly is about unity? He talked about how the church needs to be united so we can reach the world with the love of Christ and teach the three Angels Messages, and that Jesus is coming soon, all the things that sounds real good to Adventist ears. He was so soft spoken and sincere, almost convincing, but I didn't fall for it. There's no way that the SDA Conference President is going to preach the FULL 3 Angels Messages, especially about his friend the pope. No way! The evidence of him and his buddies at the GC being in cahoots with the "Great Whore" against Jesus is OVERWHELMING. The pope is working really hard to unite all religions. The biggest work they have is to convince ALL SDA's to join the bandwagon. Sooo-ooo, Ted and the GC boys need to have authority to rule over all the Unions & Conferences. That way when the time comes to unite with the new world order of churches, for the "common good", all SDA church members must obey or face the consequences. The Adventist SDA Corporation is a 501c3 corporation and must obey whatever comes down from the U.S. government. By become a 501c3 corporation the SDA Conference stopped being a church. It legally and literally turned it's back on "The Great I Am" and the majority of SDA's are clueless about it.

The GC has a bad history of rubbing shoulders with popery. Popery is the satanic system that is against our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Popery is the daughter of Satan himself.

Twice the General Conference of Seventh Day Adventist Corporation has sent representatives to the Vatican to personally meet with "the man of sin". The GC has of yet to publicly repent to the Adventist people for their betrayal against them and Jesus.

Robert Howard Pierson (3 January 1911 – 21 January 1989) was the president of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists from June 16, 1966 to January 3, 1979. It was under his watch that Dr. Pierre Lanares, Roland R. Hegstard, Dr. Leif Fr. Tobiassen, and B. B. Beach went to the Vatican to visit the anti-Christ.

Review and Herald, May 30, 1968

In this issue of the Review and Herald, a delegation from the General Conference of Seventh Day Adventist met with Pope Paul VI. They were part of the Church-State Commission. Robert Howard Pierson was the GC president at that time. The Anti-Christ presented them a medal. I cannot find a picture of the medal the anti-Christ gave them. The picture below is from page 16.

The General Conference delegates that visited the anti-Christ Pope Paul VI were:

Dr. Pierre Lanares – Religious Liberty Secretary of the Southern European Division, died in Clapiers, Southern France, on February 2, 2004, aged 92.

Roland R. Hegstard, editor, Liberty, died June 17 at age 92 in Dayton, Maryland.

Dr. Leif Fr. Tobiassen professor of history and political science at Andrews University.

Presenting stimulating food for thought is Dr. Leif Kr. Tobiassen, professor of history and political science.

Bert Beverly Beach (born 1928 in Gland, Switzerland) is a retired American Adventist theologian, university teacher, author and philanthropist. He was Secretary General of the International Association for Religious Freedom in the 1990s. Bert Beverly Beach, a world leader of the SDA Church, co-author of So Much In Common, "Between the World Council of Churches and the Seventh-day Adventist Church". In 1977 he went to the Vatican to meet with Pope John Paul II.

Book, Medallion Presented to Pope

In connection with a recent consultative meeting of secretaries of World Confessional Families held in Rome, B. B. Beach, secretary of the Northern Europe-West Africa Division, one of the 15 participants and the only Adventist in the group, presented a book and a medallion to Pope Paul VI on May 18.

The book presented was the Adventist missionary book Faith in Action, and the medallion was a gold-covered symbol of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. The medallion is an engraved witness to the Adventist faith in Christ as Creator, Redeemer, and soon-coming Lord, in the cross and Bible, and in the lasting validity of the Ten Commandments. While the other commandments are represented simply as Roman numerals, the words of the fourth—"Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy"—are written out.

The Conference of World Confessional Families usually meets once a year. It is not an organization, but an informal, unstructured forum for consultation and the exchange of useful information.

Ted N. C. Wilson (b. May 10, 1950) is the current President of the General Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist Church as of June 2010. Prior to this appointment, he served as a General Vice President for this church organization from July 2000. It was under his leadership that Ganoune Diop met with “man of sin”.

Dr. Ganoune Diop is Director of Public Affairs and Religious Liberty for the worldwide Seventh-day Adventist Church. Before his election in July 2015 at the 60th General Conference Session in San Antonio, Texas, he served as the church’s liaison to the United Nations in New York and Geneva, and as its representative within the international community of civic and political leaders.

Jesuit Extreme Oath of Induction

The following is the Jesuit Extreme Oath of Induction given to high ranking Jesuits only. This oath is taken from the book Subterranean Rome by Carlos Didier, translated from the French, and published in New York in 1843. This is just a part of the oath.

“I furthermore promise and declare that I will, when opportunity present, make and wage relentless war, secretly or openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Liberals, as I am directed to do, to extirpate and exterminate them from the face of the whole earth; and that I will spare neither age, sex or condition; and that I will hang, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics, rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infants' heads against the walls, in order to annihilate forever their execrable race. That when the same cannot be done openly, I will secretly use the poisoned cup, the strangulating cord, the steel of the poniard or the leaden bullet, regardless of the honor, rank, dignity, or authority of the person or persons, whatever may be their condition in life, either public or private, as I at any time may be directed so to do by any agent of the Pope or Superior of the Brotherhood of the Holy Faith, of the Society of Jesus.”

Conference rep Ganoune Diop is elated to meets the Jesuit pope.

The Protestants of the United States will be foremost in stretching their hands across the gulf to grasp the hand of spiritualism; they will reach over the abyss to clasp hands with the Roman power; and under the influence of this threefold union, this country will follow in the steps of Rome in trampling on the rights of conscience. {GC 588}

Above: Conference rep Ganoune Diop meets with “the man of sin”, the anti-Christ, at the Vatican in October 2016, and signs an agreement with the anti-Christ and other churches to not criticize each other's religion. Why would the General Conference of SDA Corporation send one of its people to meet with a Jesuit, a Jesuit who took an oath to kill Protestants. SDA’s are Protestants are they not?

Sept. 2017 Ganoune Diop met with 600 Babylonian leaders in Florida for a unity conference where tolerance and COEXIST was the theme. He then promotes this unity on TV. Here is the video of Diop on TV, it starts at 1 hour 24 minutes:

He is calling on churches to have tolerance and to "coexist" or unite. This is the SAME message that the pope has stated, for churches to have tolerance and coexist! Pope Francis

A View of the Conflict

In vision I saw two armies in terrible conflict. One army was led by banners bearing the world's insignia; the other was led by the blood-stained banner of Prince Emmanuel. Standard after standard was left to trail in the dust as company after company from the Lord's army joined the foe; and tribe after tribe from the ranks of the enemy united with the commandment-keeping people of God. An angel flying in the midst of heaven put the standards of Emmanuel into many hands, while a mighty general cried with a loud voice: "Come into line. Let those who are loyal to the commandments of God and the testimony of Christ now take their position. Come out from among them, and be ye separate, and touch not the unclean, and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be My sons and daughters. Let all who will come up to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty.” PH109 1.1

The battle raged. Victory alternated from side to side. Now the soldiers of the cross gave way, “as when a standard-bearer fainteth.” But their apparent retreat was but an effort to gain a more advantageous position. Shouts of joy were heard. A song of praise to God went up, and angel voices united in the song, as Christ's soldiers planted His banner on the walls of fortresses till then held by the enemy. The Captain of our salvation was ordering the battle and sending support to His soldiers. His power was mightily displayed, encouraging them to press the battle to the gates. He taught them terrible things in righteousness as He led them on step by step, conquering and to conquer. PH109 2.1

At last the victory was gained. The army following the banner with the inscription, “The commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus,” was gloriously triumphant. The soldiers of Christ were close beside the gates of the city of God, and with joy the city received her King. The kingdom of peace and joy and everlasting righteousness was established. God's will was done on earth, as it is done in heaven.

The Commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus

Perhaps the so-called leaders at the General Conference of Seventh Day Adventist Corporation have forgotten what the bible has to say about “the son of perdition”. There’s no way that GC presidents Robert Howard Pierson & Ted Wilson could say they didn’t know anything about the General Conference sending their representative to meet with Mr. Anti-Christ. Robert Howard Pierson didn’t make any apologies for sending a GC representative to meet with the “man of sin” and don’t expect Jesus traitor Ted Wilson to make any announcement of that sort either.

Far right at the end is Ganoune Diop

Dear Seventh Day Adventist people, why, why is the General Conference of Seventh Day Adventist Corporation going a whoring after “The Man of Sin”?

Why are the dear SDA lay-people and the watchmen on the walls, the pastors, deathly silent?

Because persecution happened centuries ago the SDA people of today have no fear of what’s coming. PEACE AND SAFETY are the sermons of the day. No warning trumpet sounding the alarm.

SHAMEFUL!!!! SHAMEFUL!!!! Dumb dogs that will not bark!!!!

The General Conference of Seventh Day Adventist Corporation has betrayed the faithful SDA people to the man of sin and the people are deathly silent.

Why is that?
Nobody cares?

Notice how EGW predicted this would happen, and conference rejected by God:

“The religion of Jesus is endangered. It is being mingled with worldliness. Worldly policy is taking the place of the true piety and wisdom that comes from above, and God will remove His prospering hand from the conference. Shall the ark of the Covenant be removed from this people? Shall idols be smuggled in? Shall false principles and false precepts be brought into the sanctuary? Shall antichrist be respected? Shall the true doctrines and principles given us by God, which have made us what we are, be ignored? Shall God’s instrumentality, the publishing house, become a mere political, worldly institution? This is directly where the enemy, through blinded, unconsecrated men, is leading us.” Ms29-1890.9

2 Thessalonians 2

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

The General Conference is no longer the voice of God

No longer the voice of God:

“It has been some years since I have considered the General Conference as the voice of God.” —Manuscript Releases 17, p. 216, 1898; Last Day Events, p. 50.3

“That these men should stand in a sacred place, to be as the voice of God to the people, as we once believed the General Conference to be—THAT IS PAST.” - The General Conference Bulletin, April 3, 1901, p. 25; Last Day Events, p. 50.

General Conference is corrupt:

“I do not find rest in spirit. Scene after scene is presented in symbols before me, and I find no rest until I begin to write out the matter. I have not slept since two o'clock. I think we will institute at least once each day a season of prayer for the Lord to set things in order at the center of the work. Matters there are being shaped so that every other institution is following in the same course. And the General Conference is itself becoming corrupted with wrong sentiments and principles. In the working up of plans the same principles are manifest that have controlled matters at Battle Creek for quite a length of time.” —Letter 55, September 19, 1895, par. 2

“I have been shown that the Jewish nation were not brought suddenly into their condition of thought and practice. From generation to generation they were working on false theories, carrying out principles that were opposed to the truth, and combining with their religion thoughts and plans that were the product of human minds; human inventions were made supreme.” - Ellen White, Letter 55, September 19, 1895, par. 3

In 1980, when the General Conference was held in Dallas, Texas, a small group of men had been at work already in changing the doctrines of the Seventh-Day Adventist church. With very little push back or questioning, they moved a change thru in the God that we worship and believe in. The action done is the warning that Sister White had given in 1898, 1901, 1903 and 1909. Most notably is Neal C. Wilson, W. Duncan Eva, Bernard Seton and Fritz Guy.

“At times, when a small group of men entrusted with the general management of the work have, in the name of the General Conference, sought to carry out unwise plans and to restrict God’s work, I have said that I could no longer regard the voice of the General Conference, represented by these few men, as the voice of God. But this is not saying that the decisions of a General Conference composed of an assembly of duly appointed, representative men from all parts of the field, should not be respected. God has ordained that the representatives of His church from all parts of the earth, when assembled in a General Conference, shall have authority. The error that some are in danger of committing, is in giving to the mind and judgment of one man, or of a small group of men, the full measure of authority and influence that God has vested in His church, in the judgment and voice of the General Conference assembled to plan for the prosperity and advancement of His work.” – Testimonies for the Church, vol. 9, 260.2, 1909; General Conference Bulletin, May 31, 1909, Art. A, par. 12; Ms38a, p.13 (published three times in 1909, once in 1915, once in 1949, once in 1992 with a slant to it in Last Day Events.

11 times the above paragraph was published in 1990 throughout different Manuscript Releases. This was part of reprogramming the minds and thoughts of our people. It included an opinion that was added by Arthur White. Sadly Arthur White (grandson of Ellen White) was under the influence and control of the GC. He colors his opinion to make it appear that there was only a problem when the GC was made up of only a few men. The different view as commented by ALW vs. teh actual published statement in 1909 does not change Sister White’s writings, that "the GC is no longer the voice of God". She only points out that the decisions made should be respected ‘when they are represented by duly appointed men from all parts of the field and world’. Here is Arthur White's comments:

"The opinions in this document were expressed by Ellen White at a time when only a small group represented the General Conference. After the General Conference was reorganized in 1901 to provide broad representation, Mrs. White took a different view. At the 1909 General Conference she encouraged strong support for the General Conference. At that session she said: "At times, when a small group of men entrusted with the general management of the work have, in the name of the General Conference, sought to carry out unwise plans and to restrict God's work, I have said that I could no longer regard the voice of the General Conference, represented by these few men, as the voice of God. But this is not saying that the decisions of a General Conference composed of an assembly of duly appointed, representative men from all parts of the field should not be respected. God has ordained that the representatives of his church from all parts of the earth, when assembled in a General Conference, shall have authority.... Let us give to the highest organized authority in the church that which we are prone to give to one man or to a small group of men."— Testimonies for the Church 9:260, 261. See further The Early Elmshaven Years, by A. L. White, pp. 75-94, 108-110.] {17MR 215.1}

The change made in the doctrines of the Seventh-Day Adventist church WERE NOT made by representatives from all over the field and world. They were made by just a handful of men in suits working in back rooms, fulfilling the doctrine of the devil. Trying to unify with the world so they would be accepted by the World Council of Churches and not be considered a cult. We were a peculiar people, unlike any of the other Christian denominations. But after what happened in Dallas, Texas (General Conference session) in April of 1980, we were so much closer in our beliefs to be one like the world by adopting a trinity god.

Manuscript 114, July 1894, Diary about Willie White regarding O.A. Olsen, Granville, Australia

"I have had conversation with W. C. White. He was presenting before me the necessity of our people heeding the voice of the General Conference. Then I said, "WCW, it is time you should understand that, [notwithstanding] the opinion that has prevailed, the General Conference so-called is no longer the voice of God. It has become a strange voice, and they are building strange fire. God does not speak through them. The work that is being done in the General Conference is a strange work. Elder Olsen is not in the light. Had he stood in the light, he would not have allowed us to be separated from him and come to this country. He has stood in a divided position in reference to the spirit brought from Minneapolis. He let the burdens fall upon me that never should have come upon me. Had he stood to his post of duty like a man after God's own heart, the clouds would have broken and light would have come in clear and bright. But his half-and-half position was acting out the Aaron, and God was displeased. We were needed at the heart of the work all the years that we have been away from America.

There is being done in America, by the General Conference, that which the churches in the conferences know nothing about. You were not wanted in their councils. They wanted to get you out of the way. Elder Olsen was not fully in all their projects at first, but they—Harmon Lindsay and A. R. Henry—deceived him. Elder Olsen has betrayed the cause of God. He is not in union with Elder Ellet Waggoner, neither is he in harmony with A. T. Jones. He is yoked up and united with the men who are working at cross-purposes with God, and the churches are becoming leavened with the spirit that prevails at Battle Creek.

W. C. White appeared astonished when I told him that he was not wanted in Battle Creek councils and was crowded out, and meetings were held that he should have been notified to attend. But they took special pains that he should not know of these meetings. Elder Olsen could have wholly changed these things if he had stood free in God, bravely opposed to wrong, but he yoked up as a true yoke-fellow with A. R. Henry, who has carried things with a high hand. [They] would control everything upon the Pacific Coast if they could get their grasp upon it. I am instructed that the Lord will let these men have all they have worked for, and then will He punish them and mark their future." - Ellen White, Ms 114-1894, p. 1-3
